HOT SPRINGS, Ark., June 26.—One southwestern desperado was shot to death and another critically wounded early today when W. P. Westmoreland of Houston, Texas, resisted with gunfire their attempts to hold up his wife and himself.

The Westmorelands were driving into Mountain Lake, a summer resort six miles east of here, where they are staying, when one of two masked men appeared at the roadside and barked out "get out of that car and stick 'em up."

Answers With Gun.
Westmoreland's answer was a volley of revolver fire. One of the men, later identified as Nolan Brady of Conway, Ark., an ex-convict, fell dead, drilled through the heart. His companion, identified as Clem Holman of Muskogee, Okla., also an ex-convict, was shot through the liver. Westmoreland lifted Holman's body into his car and drove here stopping at a local garage for assistance. He refused to talk of the affair. Physicians say that he will not live.

Davis To Confer With President On Yacht

(International News Service)
LAKEMAN BAY, ROQUE ISLAND Me., June 26.—Within easy sail of Mis-Goal-Campobello Island—President Roosevelt today prepared to leave this snug cove, where the Ambergjack II dropped anchor last night to continue his leisurely cruise up the northeastern coast.

At the order of her distinguished skipper, the Ambergjack's "hook" rattled outside at 8:30 p. m. after a 40 mile run from southwest harbor and the presidential party sought refuge in the cabin from sharp night breeze.

Sometime tomorrow the president will take board his schooner Norman H. Davis, American ambassador-at-large to Europe, for a discussion of the world disarmament conference, from which Davis has just returned.

As the president loafed his way north Sunday, one of his escorting destroyers, the Bernadou, headed southward for a fast run to Boston, where Davis will be taken aboard and hurried northward for the parley with his chief. The Bernadou is expected to overtake the president late Tuesday and Davis will go aboard the Ambergjack II wherever contact is made, probably in the bay of Fundy.

BERLIN, June 26.—Adolf Hitler's government forces staged a nation-wide clean-up of die-hard political opponents today, making over 600 arrests, most of which were labeled "protective" in the interests of the national government.

Those seized included many deputies in both the Reichstag and Provincial diets and many former government officials.

A total of 560 Social Democrat (Socialist) and Communist functionaries were arrested in Magdeburg, Senftenberg, Hamburg, Frankfurt, and Bremen.

Others arrested included the leaders of the Monarchist League of Bayernwacht. Among them being Prince Karl Von Wrede, Baron Hirsch, and Baron Von Lex. These Monarchists were charged specifically with continued agitation for the restoration of the Wittelsbach regime in Bavaria.

A former cabinet minister was among those seized, Herr Schaeffer, who held the finance portfolio, being taken into custody in Munich.

New Castle's second company of foresters—84 strong—has arrived at its forest camp in the vicinity of Asaph, Tioga county, news reaching here from members of the group informed today. The foresters were transferred last week from their training camp at Fort Washington, Md.

The Tioga county camp is located nearly 236 miles from New Castle, one mile off the famed Roosevelt highway.

Company 1354 is the number the second group has been assigned, while the camp number is 92. A letter from Donald Lanigan, Union township youth and former Union high school football player, recited the high spots of the group's first week. A rattlesnake, four feet long, caused first excitement for the boys. It was killed.

When your temperature is rising, and the heat has got you down, when the city's streets are sizzling and the spuds are turning brown, do not grumble, do not worry, simply follow out this rule, keep your shirt on, don't get worried, just relax a bit, keep cool. Think of Greenland's icy mountains, or of Iceland's cooling breeze, think of Icyland down at the South Pole, where your whiskers even freeze. But by all means shun exertion, let the torrid sunshine pour, just keep cool, if you can do it, weather's just at eighty-four.

Four Persons Are Wounded

No Damage Is Caused To Cathedral When
Blast Occurs

BOMB WAS NOT VERY POWERFUL

(International News Service)
VATICAN CITY, June 26.—
Vatican officials today investigated a bomb blast which rocked an anteroom of St. Peter's cathedral, wounding four persons,
one seriously.

The explosion rocked the cathedral shortly after noon yesterday, terrifying worshippers and blasting the Vatican's sabbath calm. The bomb exploded in the part of the cathedral between the gates and the church doors where visitors must deposit all packages.

The infernal machine was in an attache case. Its explosion caused no damage to the cathedral, but made it necessary to close the Por-tico for 45 minutes while fragments of the bomb were collected.

Bomb Not Powerful
Pope Pius, who was in the Vatican library, 150 yards away, undoubtedly heard the explosion, although the bomb was not powerful and the detonation not exceptionally loud.

Police arrested for questioning a pilgrim peasant from the village of Segni. A party of Segni peasants were in St. Peter's at the time of the blast, and police declared one of them left the case containing the bomb in the portico.

As soon as Pope Pius was informed what had happened, he sent two private secretaries to a hospital to give him the blessing to the injured.
It was the third bomb attempt at St. Peter's in less than two years, and the first actual bomb explosion.

VATICAN CITY, June 26.—A Greek citizen named Demetrius Solomon was arrested by police today in connection with the bomb blast at St. Peter's Cathedral which resulted in injury to four persons.

Solomon, reported to have arrived recently from Spain, carried a Spanish passport. Vatican circles believed he was implicated in recent anti-religious activities in Spain.

The prisoner was reported to have admitted depositing the bomb, contained in a battered suitcase, in an anteroom of the cathedral and then mingling with a party of Italian pilgrims in an effort to escape detection.

Nolegott dove into the water and struck his head on the rocky bot-

Charge Financiers Getting Monopoly On Whiskey Supply

By WILLIAM S. NEAL

WASHINGTON, June 26.—
Charges that a group of financiers are seeking a virtual monopoly of whiskey production in the United States in anticipation of prohibition repeal may be laid before Attorney General Homer Cummings in the near future. It was revealed today.
The attorney general would be asked to determine whether there is a violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust law and also furnish information to congress for regulatory legislation.

One holding company, it was learned of high authority, has obtained control of 55 per cent of the distillery capacity in the country.
Recently one of the largest pre-prohibition distilleries, with one-fifth the nation's capacity, was added to the group.

The congressional "wet" leaders studying the situation are considering legislation to allocate whiskey production throughout the country after repeal as a means of preventing monopoly.

Another possible avenue of action,
it was pointed out, would be the exercise by President Roosevelt of his licensing power under the national recovery act.

RUTH McANLIS WEDS OHIO MAN SATURDAY

A very quiet but impressive wedding that is of interest to many here took place Saturday June 24 at the Trinity Evangelical church at DuBois when Miss Ruth McAnlis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. McAnlis of 219 Euclid avenue became the bride of Archer Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Park C. Bush of 435 Hillside drive, Warren, Ohio.

Following a wedding dinner was served at the parsonage and the table centered with choice June roses, suggested the nuptial event in a clever manner with the decorations used.

The couple left for a short visit in Cleveland, Ohio and dispensing with a wedding trip for the time being, they will be at home after June 27 at 535 Hillside drive, Warren, Ohio.

The bride is a graduate of the Warren G. Harding high school, at Warren, O., with the class of '30 and since October has been located in New Castle. The groom also graduated from the same high school and the Ohio Business Institution there. He is affiliated with the Van Huffle Tube Company of Warren, Ohio.

PAY OR STAY OUT

THE president's action in denying France a part in the war-debt conferences next month unless the French government first makes payments on its two defaulted installments was in line with the requirements of justice.

The conferences presumably will be for the purpose of reviewing the entire debt problem as between the United States and those of its debtors that have pursued the honorable course of paying in full or in part their obligations as they fell due. To give France, while a defaulter, equality of treatment with these would not be fair to the latter.

France's refusal to pay was not because of her inability to pay. She has huge quantities of gold on hand. A selfish purpose actuated her. If she wishes to redeem her honor she can do so my paying in full or partially her defaulted obligations. She then will qualify for participation in the conferences.

This concession represents a liberal attitude on the part of the United States, although it is questionable if France will so interpret it in view of the French government's general position on the debts problem. That, however, should be a matter of small concern to Washington.

ORATORY'S OPPORTUNITY

Present-day economic, social and political conditions have placed a premium on oratory the world over. People in distress will listen to anyone with a strong voice and a grievance, and men can sway the crowds who would not attract a curbstone audience under normal conditions.

Sidney Wallach in his booklet "Hitler, Menace to Mankind" states the historical fact that Hitler was a pitiful failure, an unknown and a no-nothing, until he "made the magic discovery in a beer hall that he could talk, that people would listen, that he could, in fact, prevail upon them to act."

But it is significant that Hitler made this discovery amid great chaos in Germany. The German masses would listen and would be prevailed upon because there was widespread national unrest due to the war, the depression, a weak republican form of government and general dissatisfaction over the Versailles treaty.

Dictatorships such as those established by Mussolini and Hitler are not created by the men who talk themselves into being dictators. They are the products of their times, which in both instances were times when people had developed a yen for strong talk.

Recent political campaigns found the American people more disposed to listen to oratory than they had been since Bryan's first run for the presidency. They will get over it as soon as they all get back to work.

TWO PURPOSES SERVED

The decision of President Roosevelt to allocate $238,000,000 of public works funds in the industrial-recovery act to a naval construction program represents a wise course.

That the navy is in a badly weakened state, in comparison with those of other nations, is admitted by officials. To permit it to deteriorate further would be a serious mistake.

The funds to be allocated by the president will go to the construction of 32 ships. Completion of these will leave the American navy still far below the strength permitted by the London treaty. It will be a start in the right direction, however. The building program contemplates 24 destroyers, two aircraft carriers, four cruisers, four submarines and two gunboats.

The plan is important not alone because it will strengthen the navy, although this is the chief consideration. But it will give employment to thousands of workers in various lines. Many materials enter into the construction of warships. All industries turning out these will benefit. Business generally will be stimulated.

THE FIRST TEST

The first phase of the administration's effort to do something for the farmers is about to begin.

Secretary Wallace of the Department of Agriculture announces a 30-cent a bushel wheat tax on processors to pay $150,000,000 to farmers for agreements to reduce acreage. A similar program for cotton will be announced in a day or two, Washington hears.

The purpose of the tax is to bring the farm price of wheat back to the 1909-14 average. This so-called parity price is 89 cents, compared with a current farm price of 59 cents a bushel. Hence the 30-cent levy.

The plan is complicated and open to numerous objections. It may involve the nation in costs which will far exceed the losses suffered by the luckless operations of the Farm Board in the Hoover regime.

Many believe that the administration would have been wiser to hold off for a while on the processing tax, in view of the present upward tendency of all commodity prices.

However, the test is to be made. We hope it works.—The Cleveland Plain Dealer.

CAUTION IN THE WATER

Already this season there have been drowning accidents, bringing sudden death. Bathing cannot afford to forget that their summer sport, popular for its recreational benefits, is dangerous unless undertaken with due regard for water conditions and their own capabilities. Even a strong, skilled swimmer is in peril stroking alone through cold waters or across wide spaces unaccompanied by a boat with a practiced oarsman. There are several rules, such as waiting an adequate period after meals before entering the water, that should be regarded by all bathers, for cramps know no favorites.

The popularity of swimming and the increased facilities for learning the art have their dangerous side in that they occasionally tempt persons unfamiliar with the danger incurred to take unwise hazards.

Some drowning accidents occur through circumstances that one could hardly foresee, but most of them are quite within the classification of avoidable.

But a crisis, alas! also develops 10 million saviors whose schemes are hokey.

You'll notice, however, that radical opinions aren't a menace if they belong to a millionaire.

Men are eager to fight for a woman, but she must cry "Save me!" instead of "Sic 'em darn you."

All Of Us

BY MARSHALL MASLIN

"IS IT FUN?"

The young woman asked me if it wasn't the Greatest Fun in the World to write.

I told her no, it was not, and she didn't believe me. She looked at me as if I were just pretending, as if I were faking or fibbing. . . . She couldn't understand how I could possibly say such a thing.

Didn't I write for a living? Yes, I did. I do. Well, if it isn't fun for me, why do I do it? Why don't I look around and find something to do that IS fun? Why do I stick at something that isn't FUN—that I hate?

Well, lady, it's like this. . . . I didn't say that I hated writing. I merely said that it wasn't fun. I never knew anybody who wrote for a living and called it fun. . . . But I HAVE met quite a few people, some young, some old, who do a little writing occasionally—when they are in the mood, when the spirit moves them—who say that writing is fun. . . . But never a human being who earns a living from putting words together as well as he can and does it day in and day out through the year. He wouldn't think of calling it fun.

Would you ask a farmer if plowing is fun? Or getting up in the middle of the night to tend a sick cow? . . . Of course not. . . . And yet that farmer would not leave the land for anything. That's what he wants to do, that's where he's at home. Deep within him he knows it and, even though plowing isn't fun for him, in his plow is a rich satisfaction, a profound joy.

Would you speak to a doctor of fun? Of tending the sick, easing the pain, bringing a baby into the world, helping a poor mortal to bear his last agonies? . . . No, no, you wouldn't. . . . But the doctor is glad to be doing his job. He wouldn't change.

Would you ask a mother if rearing a family is fun? . . . All the chores, all the worries, all the constant responsibility of serious motherhood—are they fun? . . . You might ask her, but she wouldn't tell you that they are. Nor would she tell you why she wished she'd never had a family.

And in his humble way, as the farmer, as the doctor, as the mother feels—so feels the writer, so feels every human being that's trying to do something. . . . Fumbling, struggling, working, failing, trying—do they feel they all. . . . It isn't FUN, but it's what they try to do, and that's the important thing, after all.

JUST POLITICS

It has been difficult for the people of this country to realize what has been going on in Washington regarding Soldiers' Pensions.

The American Legion, when it was organized, was not organized for political purposes, but no organization of this kind could possibly stay out of politics, and, naturally, a great many Veterans, have been elected to public office and "feeling their oats" the Legionnaires have now gone into politics head over heels.

The members of Congress have been deluged during this present Session with letters from their Districts to such an extent that one Congressman received more than ten thousand letters from his District regarding the Bill.

The facts are that a tremendous number of men who are volunteered to serve or who were called to the Colors by reason of the Draft, were discharged at the end of the War, in perfect physical condition. Thousands of these men, have by one subterfuge or another been granted Pensions for illness and injuries, which happened after their discharge. Such men should not receive any Pension; there is no reason in the world why they should receive a pension.

It is not the purpose of the Act, I am sure, to deprive any man of a reasonable Pension who received injuries because of his service, or widows and orphans, who lost a husband or a father by reason of his service. It is to cut off the pension rolls those men who are clearly not entitled to a pension.

To show how far this has gone, in the largest county in the State of Arizona, the present acting District Attorney is receiving a large pension because of "disability." A County Judge in an important County of California is receiving a pension of $125.00 per month, because of an injury received after his discharge, which disabled one of the fingers of his hand. The injury was received in a taxicab accident.

PICNICS IN THE PARKS

I see the happy families round the tables in the park.

The supper on the table and the children all aglow.

And driving by the roadside I am tempted to remark

It is good for making merry there is such a place to go.

For the rooms men build are stifling and with all a woman's care

In summer time a tenement is dreary at the best,

But the grass is cool to walk on and a park has space to spare.

And to see his children happy puts the mind of man at rest.

The trees look down upon them in a friendly sort of way,

Uncounted feathered warblers sing a chorus as they eat.

And the Lord must smile to see them in the lovely parks at play

Instead of being prisoned in some crowded city street.

A middle-aged lady, who had been summoned to appear for jury duty, asked to be excused.

"On what grounds, Madame?" asked the judge.

"Because, your honor, I do not believe in capital punishment," she replied.

"But the case about to be tried has nothing to do with capital punishment," the judge pointed out. "It concerns a dispute between a married couple about the sum of One Thousand Dollars. The wife entrusted it to her husband to buy a fur coat for her, but he used the money to back a horse."

"Of, if that's it," said the woman, brightening up. "I'll serve." Then, after a pause, she added in a reflective tone: "Perhaps, after all, I am wrong about capital punishment."

Apparently the people are voting against the 18th Amendment because they have not relished the turmoil and rows some people have made over it. Many who are against booze in every form are voting for repeal, with the hope that something more to their liking will take its place. Too much yammering spoils any good thing.

AN ORDERLY REVOLUTION Family problems are becoming national problems.

In the depression the heads of the majority of families have been set back twenty years in savings and in income. Many of these men have sons and daughters ranging in age from twenty to forty years, who had expectations of allowances, gifts, and bequests. Now the future of these young men and women is totally dependent on their own efforts.

Intrenched wealth has largely disappeared. Month by month the percentage of insolvent estates increases in each community. The creation of new wealth will be the job of the generation that was just beginning to take hold when the crash came.

Building Program For Navy Arouses Defense Discussion

Country Below Treaty Strength And New Policy Touches Several Fields, But Armament Question Enters Into Debate

Announcement by the government that it will spend $238,000,000 in building 32 warships, using funds allotted to the work of re-employment, arouses some controversy because of its relation to national defense. Some Americans welcome the proposal because the country has failed to keep up to its treaty strength; others view it as likely to be regarded as a challenge by other nations. There is, however, general agreement that industry will derive much benefit through these expenditures, which will be largely for labor.

"This is good news," declares the WASHINGTON EVENING STAR, "both as regards the restoration of the American Navy to a closer approximation of its strength permitted by international agreement and with respect to the contribution to the revival of industry in this country. The building of these ships will give employment at once to many thousands of workers now idle and to additional thousands as the plans are carried further and actual fabrication begins. The construction of a naval vessel directly affects sixteen major industries and more than one hundred different mechanical trades. The indirect effect of this stimulation of work in mills and shipyards is sure to react helpfully upon other lines of business and bring back into employment additional thousands now idle. Every dollar of the allotment for naval construction from the $3,300,000,000 public works fund will be spent in the United States."

"It marks an end of the long vacillation on this national policy," says the CHARLESTON (S. C.) EVENING POST, "observing that the Navy has been allowed to fall far below the strength it should have for national security." The Post argues further: "It is imperative that we should maintain an adequate Navy and our right to do so is fully conceded by other nations which have kept their sea strength up to treaty limits. In the program of public works which the Administration is laying down it is eminently proper that this naval construction should be included. Only the most fanatical pacifist could see in it any threat of a warlike purpose."

Secretary Swanson is quoted by the SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS as stating that "eighty-five per cent of the money used in naval construction is paid for labor," and that "the warship building will be distributed among as many yards as possible and will be pushed rapidly." The Express also explains the situation as it now exists: "Should all those vessels be completed by 1937, the United States Navy still would be below treaty strength by 17,000 tons, divided among 38 ships. Those ships would include two aircraft-carriers, three light cruisers, numerous destroyers and 18 submarines. The country should adopt a comprehensive naval policy and—subject to international agreements—maintain an up-to-date fleet equal to any on the Seven Seas. Spasmodic ship-building is heavily costly and easily breeds suspicion and resentment abroad."

The developments indicate to the PEORIA STAR that "President Roosevelt is going to be ready for any eventuality in his diplomatic negotiations with the world at large. 'A big stick' continues that paper, 'may haste an agreement and save Uncle Sam's shirt.' It is to be hoped there will be no need of these fighting ships, but there is Roosevelt is going to have them on hand. Their construction will bring needed employment to every shipyard in the country, and that will stimulate business to a certain degree at least." The LOWELL EVENING LEADER suggests that "it looks as if we are going to have some construction work that not only has been undertaken but for the Administration's determination to set men to work."

Of the opinion that "to strengthen our Naval forces in a period when such activity will assist in conquering an unparalleled business depression."

Those responsible should not be censured if they seek to save effort required to prepare a large meal and to have it ready at a regular time.

Of course if a husband is accustomed to arriving home for dinner at a certain time and has not given previous notice of change, his plans should be arranged to make things easy at home by conforming to family routine whenever possible.

STORM CAUSES HEAVY DAMAGE IN DISTRICT

ELLWOOD CITY, June 26.—One of the most devastating electrical, hail and wind storms of recent years swept over this section yesterday afternoon between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock. Hail one-half inch in diameter knocked the fruit from trees and berry bushes just coming into fruitage were bereft of their crops. Gardens were almost washed away in different sections of the storm area. Many farmers report the loss of young chickens and other fowls which were swept away in the volume of water, which resembled a floor in a few minutes' time.

Local Playgrounds Are Big Attraction

Average Daily Attendance For Week Is 1200; Announce New Schedule

ELLWOOD CITY, June 26.—Playgrounds in Ellwood City have proved quite an attraction for the first week of their operation according to a report released by Supervisor Mrs. Ray Wilson today.

There was an average daily attendance of 1,200 for the four playgrounds for the past week with the Shelby playground having the record attendance. The volunteer supervision in each playground is all that the officials could hope for. The staff is really capable and efficient and according to the corresponding time of last year has accomplished more for the first week than was done last year. Most of the former playground instructors have volunteered their services this year.

Mrs. Wilson announces the following schedule of instruction for this week:

North side: Margaret Fehl, full time; Ruth King, Monday and Tuesday; Jean Hunter Wednesday; Margaret Fauschalski Thursday and Friday.

Phalanx: Walter Howell, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday; Ralph Powell, Tuesday, Wednesday, Milo Morrison, Thursday and Friday; Shelby: Adele Mondell, Monday and Tuesday; Mrs. Deemer, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday; Emma Perry, Minnie Perry, mornings; Phyllis Thomas afternoon, Arthur Toth full time, Frank Fishoneri full time.

Lincoln: Katherine Koch full time; Bernice Loughlin, George Curry, Arthur Howell, Phalanx.

West End: Helen Crowley, full time; Mike Dunn, mornings. In addition to those listed in the schedule published for last week Leona Davis, Jack Zeigler, Robert Stevenson, Walter Howell and Milo Morrison helped with the work.

With the exception of a few minor details, everything is in operation but the Shelby outdoor swimming pool. The chlorinator recently donated by the city for the pool has been approved by a state inspector and work on installing it is rapidly progressing and the pool will be open at the earliest possible date.

The response for volunteer work has been most gratifying and satisfactory during the first week. Mushball and volleyball ball teams, both boys and girls, have already been organized and interplayground games scheduled, although no championship series have been arranged as yet. This is expected to be completed this week. The only drawback so far has been a lack of sufficient volunteers for the West End playground. Anyone who is interested is requested to get in touch with either Mrs. Judd C. Turner or Mrs. Ray Wilson.

Co-operation of parents and children regarding playground hours 9-12 and 1:30 and five is requested. Children are not permitted to enter the gates until the instructors arrive. When children come too early it results in causing confusion about the gates at the tube works and at the same time endangering themselves. Children are asked not to crawl through the fences before or after playground hours, upon pain of prosecution and punishment.

Mrs. Wilson stated that the playgrounds will not operate on rainy days.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

GEOLOGICAL MUSEUM, LONDON, June 26.—Prospects of a silver agreement arising from the deliberations of the world economic conference were enhanced today when India threw her influence behind the American silver remonitization scheme.

The Indian representative, Sir George Schuster, told the silver subcommittee India is prepared to cooperate in the silver plan introduced last week by Senator Key Pittman of the American delegation for a graduated absorption of the Indian silver surplus by silver producing countries.

Senator Pittman said Sir George, leading authority on Indian finance, appeared before the silver committee this morning and made an "extremely gratifying and hopeful statement," assuring the committee India will wholeheartedly cooperate to raise the price of silver.

Pittman added that all members of the committee agreed violent fluctuations in the price of silver must be halted in order to restore trade in the far east. Methods of achieving this aim vary widely.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Prof. Robert M. Lovett of the University of Chicago, and Thomas McKenna of the Chicago Civil Liberties league were seized by police early today when they appeared in a demonstration in front of the shop of B. Sopkin & Sons, apron manufacturers, on the south side.

Prof. Lovett and McKenna were taken to the police station, but hours later there had been no charge placed against them. The two men were arrested from among 1,500 dressmakers who staged the demonstration as a protest against wage cuts of from $2 to $5 a week. Prof. Lovett has long been known as a champion of the wage earner.

FORESTERS PICK NEW CAMP NAME

Take 'Lowell Thomas' For Camp's New Title—60 Returning For Fourth

By TOM CRENNEY JR. (Special To The News) CAMP NO. 126, CIVILIAN CONSERVATION CORPS, TROUT RUN, Pa., June 26.—"Camp Lowell Thomas" is the new name chosen for this forest camp where 100 New Castle youths are doing service in President Roosevelt's giant civilian conservation corps. At an election last week it was officially decided.

Arthur Sillman, New Castle forester, can claim the honor of suggesting it.

A letter informing the noted speaker of the action has been mailed to Mr. Thomas in New York.

Coming Here by Truck According to news learned here today, a group of 60 New Castle boys have chartered a truck for a return visit to New Castle over the Fourth of July. Early on the morning of Saturday, July 1, they will arrive in their home city.

Company 367, New Castle's own, won its first ball game of the season from a Trout Run team last week. The score was 9 to 2.

Many local boys participated in the game, all playing to the satisfaction of their foresters. Those who saw action were "Bub" Jones, Red Wrona, Joe Farone, Lud Ostrosky, Howard Conrad, Baska, Meider, Al Russo, Nocera and Schuller. Twenty-one fellows, representing the forest team, played.

"Bub" Jones was the hitting star of the game with a double and triple to his credit, and "Red" Wrona played a bang-up game.

Next week the local foresters will play a team from Ralston.

Special Bass And Perch Fishing Season Opens Saturday

A climax to the 1933 fishing season in the inland waters of Pennsylvania comes with the opening of the season for black bass and pike perch on July 1st.

Waters in Lawrence County this year should provide splendid sport for local anglers, according to the Fish Commission. Stocking of black bass ranging in size from 3 to 6 inches and pike perch during recent years has been an important contributing factor to improvement in fishing for these game fish. Low clear water of fairly high temperature in most Pennsylvania streams during the past three years also aided the natural increase by providing ideal spawning conditions for the bass, which is regarded as a peerless game fish. The open season for warm water game fish closes on November 30th. Ten bass may be taken by a fisherman in one day and must be nine inches in length to be legal. Pike perch must be twelve inches in length to be legal. The catch limit for pike perch for one day is ten.

The Fish Commission stocked 2,000 black bass and 472,000 pike perch fry in waters of Lawrence County last year. Streams stocked were Neshannock Creek and Connoquessing Creek.

Don't be afraid of riots. When the weather makes people mad enough to fight, they haven't pep enough.

League Scored

After playing Admiral Richard E. Byrd's national economy league, Johnson contended the legion was against the "goldbrickers" in the veterans' list as much as anybody else, he said.

"These goldbrickers are continually being paraded to the detriment of the truly disabled. At the same time, however, let us not forget that the goldbrickers are not on the veterans' list."

Tarentum won the first prize of $225 offered for the best drum and bugle corps of the region. Massillon, O., was second, McKeesport's Bert Foster Post, third; New Kensington, fourth, and the Frank Kirk Post No. 145 of Crafton-Ingram, Pa., fifth.

Canton, O., won first place in the band contest.

Will Wage War On Kidnapers

Citizens Of St. Paul And Milwaukee Will Raise Fund To Fight Kidnapers

CITIZENS AROUSED BY RECENT CASES

(International News Service)
ST. PAUL, Minn., June 26.—Aroused by the apparently successful escape of kidnapers who collected $100,000 ransom for the abduction of Wm. Hamm, Jr., millionaire business man and brewer, citizens of St. Paul are raising a huge reward as a means of fighting this racket.

The fund which already exceeds $30,000 and is growing each day was contributed by leading citizens and placed in the hands of Howard Kahn, editor of the Daily News. It is the answer to the people of this city to the challenge raised by the latest and most successful of a series of four kidnappings which have terrorized this community in the past two years.

Citizens are aroused to fever pitch by the Hamm abduction and the apparent helplessness of the police to make headway in the solution of this crime.

They have selected Kahn as trustee for a fund made up of voluntary contributions in the desperate hope that valuable information will be forthcoming leading to the capture of the kidnapers and the break-up of the gang.

Donors to the fund and the public generally are determined that everything shall be done to track down these crooks and discourage this racket which menaces the lives and property of every well-to-do citizen.

Plans are reported under way for an indignation meeting at which the police will be put on the carpet and a demand made for definite results soon or a new deal in the police department.

All Cigarettes are not Alike

Different Kinds of Tobaccos Make a Difference in Taste and Aroma

... Take Chesterfields, for Instance

SOME cigarettes are made out of only one kind of tobacco... while others are made from several different kinds.

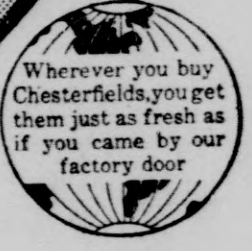

And everyone can understand that different tobaccos make a difference in taste and aroma. Chesterfields are a good example of this difference.

You see it's not easy to make Chesterfield's milder taste. It takes three distinct kinds of Domestic tobaccos. Then these must be seasoned with the right amount of Turkish. And they must be blended and cross-blended until their flavors are welded together... to make a cigarette that has character and yet is not too strong... to make a cigarette that's milder, a cigarette that tastes better.

Choice Turkish Tobaccos come to Chesterfield warehouses in bales like these.

Wampum Cement Plant Employees Work For Safety

No-Accident Campaign Is In Progress At Crescent Portland Cement Co.

Determined to continue as leaders in safety, members of the Portland Cement Association are now conducting their eighth annual "June no-accident" campaign. W. P. Rice, superintendent of the Crescent Portland Cement Co. of Wampum, says employees are determined that the local plant will not mar the record of the industry.

"The problem is greater this year than ever because steady operation has not been possible. Employees fresh on the job may not be as careful as those who have been working regularly. So we must place greater emphasis on safety this year than ever," Superintendent Rice explained.

"If the public works program which President Roosevelt has proposed is passed and communities in this locality take immediate action to get some needed local projects under way local payrolls will be appreciably increased. It will bring in outside money for local workers. Many people are still waiting for 'something to happen' before they spend money for anything they don't just have to buy and I believe the public works program will start the ball rolling for everyone," Mr. Rice continued.

"Assurance of regular and continued work ahead would be a great help to the employees both financially and from a safety point of view and should do much to reduce the accident hazard with us."

BREAKING INTO SOCIETY

MRS. BLAIR PHONED. WANTS US OVER FOR BRIDGE, TONIGHT

SO WE'RE BREAKING INTO SOCIETY! WELL, I'M NOT GOING. TOO WARM... BLAIRS ARE SNOBS ANYWAY... ONLY ASK US WHEN SOMEONE ELSE BACKS OUT

I KNOW... BUT WE GET SO FEW INVITATIONS. I'M LONESOME. DO LET'S GO

NOT ONE STEP!... SAY, HAVE I TIME FOR A BATH BEFORE DINNER?

YES, AND THERE'S SOME NEW TOILET SOAP—LIFEBUOY. THE GROCER SAYS IT'S SO COOLING AND REFRESHING FOR WARM DAYS

TO HERSELF— I DAREN'T TELL HIM HE NEEDS TO USE LIFEBUOY. HE'D BE SO HURT IF HE KNEW HE OFFENDED WITH "B.O."

LIFEBUOY'S GREAT! GRAND LATHER. FEEL SO CLEAN AND PEPPED UP... YOU REALLY WANT TO GO TO BLAIR'S, HONEY? O.K.

NOBODY COULD HAVE BEEN MORE PLEASANT THAN THE BLAIRS WERE TONIGHT. I'M PLAYING GOLF WITH HIM SATURDAY

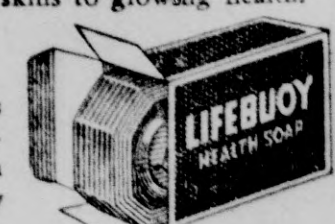

THEY'RE A NICE COUPLE. LETS HAVE THEM OVER OFTEN. BUT I THOUGHT YOU SAID HE WAS... CARELESS ABOUT "B.O."

SO HE WAS. BUT HE MUST BE USING LIFEBUOY NOW. I'M SO GLAD. I'VE ALWAYS LIKED HER AND NOW WE CAN BE REALLY NEIGHBORLY

MY SKIN IS CLEARER AND FRESHER, TOO

NO WONDER women everywhere are enthusiastic over Lifebuoy! For they not only find that Lifebuoy baths protect daintiness—prevent embarrassing "B.O." (body odor)—but that Lifebuoy is marvelous for the complexion, too. Its lather is so bland and soothing, the most delicate skin thrives on it. Yet it gives the thorough, pore-deep cleansing essential to complexion beauty. It gently washes away clogged impurities; freshens dull skins to glowing health.

Its very smell is different. You'll quickly learn to love its clean, refreshing scent that vanishes as you rinse. For it tells you Lifebuoy is different from ordinary toilet soaps—does more!

TELLS AIMS UNDER U.S. RECOVERY ACT

Wild-Cat Price Lifting Tabooed

Johnson Lays Down Law On Proposals To Aid Industrial Recovery

SAYS NO TIME TO GET RICH QUICK

By T. N. SANDIFER
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, June 26.—Warring factions of labor and industry, would-be price fixers, and consumers' interests, were brought nearer agreement today after Brig. General Hugh S. Johnson laid down the law to all of them in a forceful statement to the nation of what he is doing under the National Recovery Act.

To embattle labor groups Johnson said: "Labor will have a full and unrestricted right to present its case. The law specifically requires that every agreement contain a covenant to recognize collective bargaining and not to require men to join a company union as a condition of employment. This law will be executed as it is written."

To industry, he said: "There is absolutely no reason or law for labor to demand a collective bargain in advance of submission of a code, and certainly it is a waste of time for any industry to rush to set up a company union."

No Runaway Prices
On the threat of runaway prices, Johnson lashed out in old-time cavalryman style: "This administration simply will not stand for that," and he added, significantly, "We do not expect to have any trouble about it."

"This is no time to get rich quick," Johnson stated, and pleaded for "every good man on the ropes."

Declaring that 12 million men are still out of work, and that "any wildcat price lifting will hit them first," Johnson said "nobody is going to do a thing that will make him a peace profiteer."

Describing the plight of the country, and the machinery he is operating, Johnson declared that "American industry has got to save itself."

The men who are helping him, Johnson said are "neither Czars nor smart alecks." Neither are the boards, or any advisory bodies with him "society boards," he said.

Fight To Fix Prices
Boiling down his aim, and the plan of his administration, he said, "if we want to keep our country going, we have got to find a way to let everybody buy a half a dollar's worth of ham and eggs."

Despite Johnson's warnings important factions of the industrial and business groups of the country will make a fight to be allowed to fix prices.

While not in open revolt against Johnson's dictum about protecting the public against disproportionate prices, these groups, it is known, already are working on problems of price control. They will insist, it is understood, on the right to fix prices in their codes. And it is expected that these prices will be upward, and not down.

Machine Can Watch Persons "Thinking"

By LEIGH MATTESON,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, June 26.—An electrical method of watching a brain cell "think" was described at a brainy session on brains Saturday at the meeting of the American association for the Advancement of Science.

When any of the 14 billion cells of the conscious brain get a notion a tiny surge of electricity is transmitted to neighboring cells, and this can be amplified to make visual records, the scientists were informed by Professor C. Judson Herrick, of the University of Chicago.

With this new technique in electro-physiology scientists may hope to discover soon as much new information about nervous tissues as has been discovered about body tissue with the microscope, Dr. Herrick said.

In measuring the electrical changes produced in brain cells by thinking, the tiny "action" currents are drawn off cells in different areas of the brain surface and amplified by ordinary radio tubes.

The current changes are recorded on a moving tape, but the apparatus could be modified so that the current changes could be reproduced as sound and brains could be "heard" thinking.

Billion Cells
In a short period of study, Dr. Herrick found that each of the 14 billion cells in the human brain has a much "individuality" as the individual possessor of the brain.

Each cell emits different sorts of electrical charges at a different rhythm from all the other cells.

"There is no strictly equipotential tissue in the nervous system," he said. "No two microscopic particles are identical in structure or function."

From use of the electro-physical method it is hoped that much can be learned about thought processes by a study of the cells beneath the surface of the brain cortex.

Thugs Get $1800, Slug Policeman

YOUNGSTOWN, O. June 26.—Police are seeking two bandits who knocked down a special policeman held up a messenger and escaped with $1800 on Central Square last night.

Joseph L. Sherer, employed by the Hughes Provision Company, was on his way to the night depository slot of the Union National Bank accompanied by Special Policemen Roy Flick. The two gunmen stepped out of the side entrance of a theater on the square, and one felled Flick with a blow on the head. The second put a gun against Sherer's head and told him to put up his hands. The $1800 was in a package carried by Sherer.

FEMME FOOTBALLERS—Night club dancers try football as a diversion between rehearsals.

Bessemer-Tigers To Replay Game Tuesday

Commission Orders American Titular Game Played Tomorrow

MANAGERS DIFFER AS TO GROUND RULE

Having had one game that didn't count, Bessemer and the Tigers will meet at 6:30 p. m., D. S. T., Tuesday on Lee avenue field, the Lawrence County league commission yesterday having upheld Bessemer's protest, lodged as the result of a game in the American division, Friday. The title will be at stake Tuesday.

The controversy which arose during the game and out of which a protest developed, grew out of a ground rule. Both managers understood the ground rule differently. At least neither of them agreed at the hearing that it covered what they thought it covered. In fact no one agreed to anything except to take the order and replay the baseball game.

Alec Black said it covered all balls that lodged in the woods and A. L. Hedberg of Bessemer said the rule covered all balls hit between the two flags in right field.

In two of the umpires did not see the ball in right field and one of them did. Another umpire ordered Galt back to third base and he did not go.

Honest But Different Opinions

The commission could not get any two persons to agree on any single thing except that when they ordered the game played over both managers agreed.

In the first place Bessemer gets a chance to win the first half title and Tigers get a chance to trim them again, so Black opines.

The receipts of the game will go to the Tigers and the fans will flock to the game to see who's going to be who when Mahoning A. A. National loop leaders steps forth.

In the game Friday night the Tigers looked as probable winners but a couple of weird plays set them down and Bessemer deadlocked the score.

And then came Galt!

It was his blow to right that upset the ball game. Black argued it was an error. Gedberg maintained it was a hit. It was and it wasn't an easy catch, so testimony ran.

Expect Big Crowd

One of the umpires was in position to see the play and the other two were not. The umpire-in-chief said he had ordered Galt back to third base and he had not gone.

The commission consumed a couple of hours listening to the pro and con of the different parties concerned and every time it lodged back in the category of misinterpretation of the ground rule.

So the game has been ordered played over and it looks as though everybody's brother and his third cousin will be there to see who's going to win.

Bessemer believes that the Bengals are duck soup for them and West Side Tigers believe that no team from Bessemer can beat a West Side team.

The baseball hostilities open at 6:30 p. m., D. S. T.

Arlington Park Races Started

Thoroughbreds Will Race At Chicago Track For Next Thirty Days

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, June 26.—Under more pretentious circumstances, perhaps, but they'll be the same contributions to the uplift of the thoroughbred today at Arlington park, where a 30-day meeting, characterized as the most important of the season, gets under way.

The meet will mark the distribution of some $500,000 in stakes and purses devoted to the improvement of the breed, if not to the purchase of life's little finer things for the owners. And no small part of the goings-on will be the operation of the club's all-electric totalizer, costing $250,000, and guaranteed to transmit the bad news to the players with quick and accurate dispatch.

Seven stake races adorn the program, featuring a long list of the best horses from the east and west, and concluding, on July 19, with the Arlington Futurity worth $55,000. In the $5,000 inaugural handicap today at seven furlongs Gallant Sir may have to set a new track record, it was predicted, to win from a flashy field of 33 of the fastest horses in the country that were named in the overnight entries. At least 25 of these were expected to start.

Senators And Giants Ahead

Washington And Giants Will Probably Be Out In Front On July 4.

PIRATES-DODGERS SPLIT TWO GAMES

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 26.—Indications are that the New York Giants, rank outsiders, and the Washington Senators, second choice in the junior circuit, will be leading the parade when the half-way point in the major league races is reached a week from tomorrow.

Both clubs strengthened their hold on first place yesterday. The Giants made it seven victories out of nine games against the west by drubbing Cincinnati twice, increasing their lead over the idle St. Louis Cardinals to three games. The Senators, triumphant in 14 of their last 15 contests, scalped the Cleveland Indians twice and are a game and a half in front of the New York Yankees, who were held to an even break in a double-header with Detroit.

Giants Win Two.

The Reds got only six hits off Hal Schumacher and seven off Fred Fitzsimmons, losing 7 to 1 and 6 to 3. A triple by Verzer with the bases loaded broke up the nightcap.

Whitehill of the Senators held the Indians to five hits and blanked them 9 to 0 while his mates kayaked the great Wes Ferrell. In the second game Bob Burke made his first start of the year for the Nats and won in a romp, 10 to 1. The Senators had a field play with the willow, collecting 29 hits.

Yankees Split.

Hank Greenberg's single in the twelfth gave Detroit a 6 to 5 decision over the Yanks. Russ Van Atta held the Tigers to two hits in the nightcap, a six-inning affair halted by darkness, and white-washed them 3 to 0. Babe Ruth couldn't stand the heat and saw the second game from the bench.

Hits by Haas, Dykes and Simmons in the eighth inning off their former side-kick, George Earnshaw, enabled the White Sox to nose out the Athletics, 3 to 2, and snap a five-game losing streak. Rube Walberg came to life and hurled the Mackmen to a 5 to 3 triumph in the night-cap thanks to Jimmy Fox's 16th homer of the year, made in the tenth inning off Ted Lyons with a man on base.

Boston's Red Sox, skidding after a great winning spurt, lost two games to the tail-end St. Louis Browns, 10 to 6 and 6 to 4.

Pirates Divide.

Leon Chagnon, pitching his first complete game of the year for Pittsburgh, beat Brooklyn 5 to 2 thanks to four Dodger errors. In the night-cap the procedure was reversed, Walter Beck holding the Bucs to four hits and winning 9 to 1 while the Pirates committed four boos.

Gabby Hartnett and Wally Berger, leading contenders for the National League home run crown, strutted their stuff as the Cubs and Braves battled to a Mexican standoff. Hartnett's 11th homer, his first since June 4, and three singles, and four hits by Jurgens helped Bud Tinning subdue the Braves in the opener, 12 to 3.

Berger connected for his 13th homer in the nightcap, tying Chuck Klein for the league lead, and the Braves won out, 4 to 3, on hits by Lee and Gyselman in the ninth.

The Cardinals and Phillies were not scheduled.

American Get Bad Start In British Ryder Cup Matches

Craig Wood And Paul Runyon Only Americans To Lead British Opponents

(International News Service)

SOUTHPORT, Eng., June 26.—Encountering sub-par opposition on the ninth, Gene Sarazen and Walter Hagen of the United States were three down to Charles Whitcombe and Percy Allis of Great Britain at the end of the first 18 holes of their 36-hole Ryder cup foursome today.

Britain won another sizeable advantage when Abe Mitchell and Walter Havers finished the first 18 four up on Denny Echute and Olin Dutra of the United States.

Craig Wood and Paul Runyon of the United States turned 1 up on W. H. Davies and Syd Easterbrooke of England. Ed Dudley and Bill Burke of the American squad were 2 down to A. H. Padgham and Alf Perry of Britain at the end of the first nine holes.

Heroes-Goats In Big League

(International News Service)

The hero—Jimmy Foxx, Athletics. His 16th homer of year in tenth inning beat White Sox 5 to 3 in second game of twin bill.

The goat—Frank Crosetti, Yankees. His error put winning run on base as Yanks lost first game of double-header to Detroit, 6 to 5.

George Lott, Jr., Tennis Champion

Defeats Frankie Parker, Of Milwaukee In Tough Five Set Match

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, June 26.—George Lott, Jr., of Chicago is the new men's singles champion of the Western Tennis association.

Lott defeated Frankie Parker of Milwaukee, defending champion, yesterday in a five-set match, 6-6, 7-5, 6-1, 3-6, 6-2. The youthful Parker forced the Davis cup star to the limit, however.

Catherine Wolf of Elkhart, Ind., won the women's singles championship by defeating Helen Fulton of Chicago, 6-3, 6-3.

Bonnie Miller of Los Angeles defeated Elizabeth Kesting, St. Paul, 6-3, 6-3, for the girls' singles championship.

The men's doubles championship was won by Parker and Lefty Bryan of Chattanooga when they defeated John McDiarmid of Fort Worth, Tex., and D. Barr of Dallas, Tex., 6-2, 8-6, 5-7, 6-4.

Karl R. Douglas Gets Hole-In-One

Karl R. Douglas of 1238 State St. New Castle, has the distinction of making the first hole-in-one of the local golfing season, and also of making an ace at one of the toughest par 3 holes on the second nine at Castle Hills course. The hole-in-one was made at the Number 13 hole which is 210 yards long.

Douglas smote the ball a terrific drive and the ball lit on the green and kicked into the hole, for the biggest thrill in golfing. The green can not be seen from the tee-off, which makes the feat all the more notable and besides a 210 yard drive is good any time. Douglas was happy and will have something to talk about for a while to come. This is perhaps the longest hole-in-one that can be made.

Carnera Should Defeat Sharkey

Davis Welsh, International News Service Sports Editor Picks Carnera

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, June 26.—It was a good story, with wild, careening rides at 70 miles an hour; threatening letters and scoundrels in the background. The only trouble with it was that it wasn't wholly right.

For Jack Sharkey, the heavy-weight champion, did not spend the greater part of Saturday driving over roads between New York and Boston because his family had been threatened. Threatening letters were received, right enough, but another reason is understood to have inspired the man to jump camp almost at daybreak and return in the dead of night. It was neither as interesting nor as urgent as the one originally assigned. You might even say that it wasn't as important, but who can estimate that?

Likes Carnera

I assume that it is very important to Sharkey to retain the heavy-weight championship in his fight with Primo Carnera on Thursday and I'm not so sure now that he will. Carnera had a good chance before. He has a great chance now. This break in Sharkey's routine may turn out to be vital when all of the evidence is in. It mightn't have mattered too greatly to a fighter whose bovine nature is capable of absorbing minor shocks. But Sharkey has the soul of a ballet master in the body of a stevedore. He seethes inside, he burns at a white heat and the merest touch on some sensitive spot is enough to bring on a tantrum.

"Mamma, is that woman married?" asked little Freddie as he gazed at the statue.

"No," said his mother; "that's the Goddess of Liberty."

GOLF FACTS

NOT THEORIES!
By ALEX. J. MORRISON
Central Press Association

Putter should not be used from off the green.

ALEX. MORRISON says:
A reader asks: "How about an approach putt when the ball is just on the edge of heavy grass? That is, when the backstroke is necessarily low to ground, must I take the clubhead back into the tall grass?" In the first place, a ball off the green is not, in my estimation, an approach putt. You probably call it such because you like to use a putter when you're a few feet off the putting surface.

It's a temptation, I'll admit, but you'd do better in the long run by using a No. 3 or No. 4 iron for these short shots, and with these clubs you can use a more upright swing.

Next: Playing Rough Lie.

WIN TWO GAMES
Catholic A. C. midget team won two games Saturday at Canyon field. Del Ross won the first game for the Catholics 14 to 8 and allowed only seven hits. He fanned six men. In the second game Gairdo did the pitching and allowed only five hits, with the Catholics winning 8 to 5. T. Coppel and Foster hit homers. DeCaprio had four hits in the first game.

Mrs. Nayber—You seemed to be pretty sick yesterday, but today you look perfectly well.
Mrs. Gadder—Well, I hoped the doctor would say I was so sick I would have to have a trip to Florida—but all the mean old thing said was that I would be all right if I took some exercise by cleaning up the house.

Pirates Open In New York Today

Test Of Pittsburgh Strength Will Come In Series At Polo Grounds

LEON CHAGNON WINS HIS SECOND

(International News Service)
BROOKLYN, June 26.—Playing in the last half of their 18-game schedule abroad, the Pittsburgh Pirates pull into the Polo Grounds where they open an important series with the league-leading New York Giants today.

The outcome of the series is expected to have an important bearing on the Pirates chances of ascending to the top notch of the circuit on or before July 4. That date, according to an old diamond principle, foretells the pennant winner.

To date Pittsburgh has fared only fairly against Manager Bill Terry's crew, and at the fast clip the Giants are traveling now, the invaders will have to be at their peak to get anywhere.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The stock market opened the new week on a boom note today as bullish sentiment was stimulated by new spectacular gains in wheat and cotton.

A flood of buying poured into the list as wheat soared more than 3 cents a bushel and cotton nearly $3 a bale to new highs.

The repeat stocks set the pace with gains running to more than 5 points. Close behind were the motors under the leadership of Chrysler and General Motors, followed by the rails and textiles.

The dollar strengthened after an early dip which saw Sterling at a new peak but its fluctuations were without influence on the list.

The market ran into considerable profit-taking on the bulge and this held the rise in check. A few of the pivotal issues were sluggish, particularly U. S. Steel, American Telephone, American Can and the utilities, but the main body of stocks displayed a strong undertone on the ensuing dip.

Speculative rail bonds led the way in a strong bond market. Other grains soared with wheat while commodities were generally higher.

OF HILDA BRODSKY(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 26.—Detectives from Philadelphia and Wilmington, Del., today were expected here to question Mike "Mush" Cohen, of Philadelphia, sought for more than a year as a suspect in the kidnaping of Hilda Brodsky, 9-year-old daughter of a wealthy Wilmington merchant.

Cohen came to grief when his unsuccessful ogling of pretty girls on a Broadway street corner, and his wise-cracking remarks at passing young women aroused the ire of two detectives standing nearby.

At first, Cohen insisted he was a salesman and gave police a fictitious address. But a check-up of finger prints, police said, established that he was sought in connection with the Brodsky abduction.

The girl was snatched into an automobile near her home by a man and a woman in April, 1932. For 50 hours she was held captive, then delivered unharmed to a Philadelphia priest. Whether her parents paid ransom for her return was never definitely established.

Girl Is Called.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 26.—Ten-year-old Hilda Brodsky today was preparing for a trip to New York in an attempt to identify a suspect held there as the man who kidnaped her on April 15, 1932.

"I would know the man who took me away no matter where I saw him," she said. "I called him 'Pimple Faced Mush.' The others called him that, too."

The suspect held by New York police was identified as Mike "Mush" Cohen, of Philadelphia. Wilmington detectives were sent to New York to question him and a companion, Frank (Salvy) Marino, 38.

Confessing To Killing Of
Boy In Bushes(International News Service)
LANSDOWN, Pa., June 26.—Frenzied with fear after spending the night alone in the detention room of the police station, 16-year-old Richard Ragone today screamed a repudiation of his confession of the brutal slaying of Billy Reilly, Jr., aged 9.

"I didn't do it, honest to God, I didn't do it," he shouted to police when they brought him food.

"I don't know why I said it. I swear I didn't do it."

Assistant District Attorney William B. McClenachan, Jr., said he placed no credence in the denials. A full confession, signed by the youth, has been given police, he revealed. The confession told how Ragone attacked the boy in a clump of bushes near Mt. Moriah Cemetery in Yeaton and then stabbed him 42 times with an ice pick when Billy threatened to tell his father. Children, playing hide and seek, found the body Saturday.

Past Congress Session Exceeds All Records For Debate Brevity

By ARTHUR C. WIMMER

Special Washington Correspondent

New Castle News

WASHINGTON, June 26.—With but 40 hours and 40 minutes of general unrestricted debate, the house of representatives last session enacted the most revolutionary program of legislation approved by a congress in the memory of time.

Democrats are pointing with pride at this record. A few Republicans reflect the same attitude. Most members of the party out of the session with apprehension. Their protests outline in vivid silhouette the magic change wrought in congress March fourth.

For more than two years congress had not been functioning, partly because neither party had any appreciable majority and partly because most of Capitol Hill was at odds with the then President Hoover. Congress was becoming unpopular. Letters and telegrams, virtually insulting in nature, were being dictated by the public to senators and representatives.

That was an extreme, not of apathy, but of bewilderment. Then came March fourth and followed another extreme, an extreme of docility. With even more readiness than congress had rebuffed Mr. Hoover, congress accepted the program of President Roosevelt. The figures on general debate in the house tell this story themselves. They were prepared and are vouches for Representative Smith of Washington, all-time Democrat, and proud of it.

On two of the astounding pieces of legislation showed through congress the house allowed six hours of general debate. These favored measures were the industrial recovery bill—shattering all precedents—and the Muscle Shoals and Tennessee valley development act. Six hours of general unrestricted debate were allowed on each of these measures in a legislative body composed of 435 members. That was the general debate in any phase of the Roosevelt program was accorded, according to Congressman Smith's calculations.

The emergency agricultural relief bill, authorizing the president among other things to issue greenbacks and to alter the gold content of the dollar, got 5½ hours of general debate. This measure made a currency dictator of the man in the White House. Democratic leaders allowed the house to discuss it 5½ hours without restrictions. The so-called securities bill, making the Federal Trade Commission the St. Peter at the gates of Wall Street, was talked about in general debate for five hours. Three hours were devoted to each of the following: authorization of beer, the forestation bill, and the measure creating a national employment system. Two hours general debate were accorded the economy bill, which gave the president supreme power to reduce veterans benefits and so nearly brought real disaster for the first time to the doorstep of Mr. Roosevelt.

General debate on the act creating a federal debt for the states likewise consumed two hours. One and one-half hours were allowed for discussion of the mortgage relief for small home owners. The record—40 minutes of general debate—went to the banking reform bill, which was the most important banking legislation since the passage of the federal reserve act.

"We have," brags Congressman Smith, "passed more important and far-reaching legislation and consumed less time in general debate in doing so than any other congress in the 150 years of our national history. It is probably the most remarkable record of expeditious action ever made by any law-making body in the history of the world."

With the public virtually unanimous in approving the "big stick" methods used on congress by President Roosevelt, it would be folly to venture the belief that perhaps the house went too much from one extreme to another last session. The public wanted action from the house and got it. Once the so-called crisis is past, however, it will be interesting to note whether the public will allow the house to revert to its former practice of analyzing before voting or will continue to demand that the house vote and then read what it voted for later.

American tourists to Europe are quickly learning that the dollar isn't what it used to be. In fact, measured against European currency, it buys only two-thirds of what it formerly purchased. Thus a European trip that cost $1,000 last year is likely to cost $1,500 this year.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

The second group of Lawrence County lads to leave for the Civilian Conservation camps are now located up in Tioga County, according to a letter received from Don Lanigan. The exact spot is Asaph, if you ever heard of it.

* * *

It's a new experience for Lanigan, and the rest of the boys. Their camp is located in a little valley, and surrounded on all sides by huge trees. Nearby is a mountain that rises up above the camp and it is probably on this mountain that the youngsters will work.

* * *

Rattle snakes abound in the area, and one of the lads knocked one over which measured four feet long. Now everybody is hunting a rattle snake to get the skin for a belt. The woods abound in deer, Lanigan says, and every day they see scores of them.

* * *

The streams are full of trout, and the whole countryside is just what the doctor ordered. I gather from the letter, and knowing a little about Tioga County, I can agree that it is a nice place. Six months camp life in that section in weather such as we are having wouldn't be hard to take.

* * *

Lanigan says nothing about a shortage of writing paper or reading material, but I happen to know that in the camps there are such shortages. Some organization that wanted to do a real service to these youngsters could do so by collecting a flock of writing paper, and a lot of old magazines.

* * *

There are two camps containing New Castle boys, one at Trout Run in Lycoming County and the one at Asaph, Tioga County. Either camp is less than 275 miles from New Castle, so that the paper and magazines could be taken up by truck easily in one day.

* * *

And if you have any kin folk or friends in the C. C. C. camps, don't send them food. Send them stamps. The youngsters will get all the food they can eat, but Uncle Sam doesn't put out stamps. And how they love to write letters.

* * *

For some reason we weren't in the path of the rain king Sunday, save for a bit of a sprinkle near midnight Saturday and a few scattered drops Sunday afternoon. The storm was to the east and south, which caught the Slippery Rock valley with two nice showers.
